MONDAY MORNING, JANUARY 16, 1865.

Amendments to the Constitution.

We lately published the proposed amendments to the Constitution of the State of Oregon, adopted by the late Legislature to be again acted on by the Assembly of 1866, afterwards to be voted on by the people at the next general election and if adopted by them, to become amendments to the Constitution. The first authorizes the Legislature to provide for the election of Supreme and Circuit Judges in district classes; that is to say instead of having a Supreme Bench composed of the Circuit Judges, there will be a separate Supreme Bench, which is considered necessary in view of the increased wealth, population and importance of our State, besides which it has always been deemed questionable policy for a Supreme Court to be thus composed. Not to reflect in the least upon our present Judges, it is advisable that the Supreme Judges should be entirely independent of each other and of the lower courts. The present plan was adopted on the score of economy when our State was in its infancy; now we can better afford the means to pay a separate Supreme Bench.

The second amendment provides that the salaries of the officers of the State may be increased. The present salaries of State officers and Judges are quite low, and it is intended to so alter the Constitution as to enable the Legislature to raise these salaries as justice may require. While we would strenuously oppose giving such salaries as are paid by the State of California, or any excessive salaries to public officers, we ought still to be willing to reasonably remunerate the public servants for the services they perform. As the State grows in importance their duties become more arduous, and they deserve more remuneration while we possess more means to afford it.

The third resolution has the effect to increase the length of the biennial sessions to sixty days and the pay of the Legislature is raised to four dollars per day instead of three dollars per day which was most manifestly insufficient to enable a man to attend the Assembly, unless he could afford to lose by the honorable occupation.

These proposed amendments should be thoroughly discussed and appreciated by the people. It is a question they are most peculiarly interested in, and they are the ones by whom eventually the responsibility must be shouldered of accepting or rejecting them. We incline to the opinion that these amendments are necessary and important; that we should pay fair salaries, but not extravagant ones, to the officers of State, and that the 40 days now prescribed are insufficient while sessions are held biennially, to accomplish legislation with the necessary care and attention requisite for the best good of the State.

THE SALEM MURDER.—A person just down from Salem says that the treasure left by old Mr Delany has never been found yet. The record shows where it was secreted and probably tells the amount, but the people interested have preferred not to look for it until the crowd ceases to throng the place. It is said among the gold left by Mr Delany, as stated in his account, are coins that were abundant at an early day, $50 slugs eight-sided, and $5 beaver money coined at Oregon City in 1849, which are now very scarce. The men who committed the murder heard a dog bark under the bed and lifted up the curtain and shot him dead, the powder burning the hand of the negro boy who was hidden there, but they did not discover him, and when they went out into the other room he slipped out and hid away until morning. There is little doubt that the murderers can be tracked and discovered, as there are many circumstances tending to make concealment difficult.

ARREST FOR MURDER.—We learn that two persons well known in Salem, were arrested on Saturday last on suspicion of being concerned in the Delany murder. They were seen riding in that direction the evening of the murder, and a hat-band was found on the premises, that on examination fits a hat without a band found in the house of one of the parties. We refrain from giving the names as the persons arrested have hitherto born fair characters and will be examined upon the charges soon, when we will give particulars if they are bound over.

ABOUT BLUE MOUNTAIN ROADS.—Our correspondent from La Grande tells of two men frozen to death in going from Walla Walla to Grand Ronde Valley in the stage which we had not heard of before. He pronounces all roads over the Blue Mountains impassable but the one by Meachams. We are aware that there has been much improvement made on this route by Messrs Meacham and if those located on other routes feel aggrieved they must post us about their roads in self defence.

BOGUS EXTRAS.—Some time since two persons named Henry and DeYoung had what purported to be news extras of the Bulletin and Alta published and sold in San Francisco. They were arrested on the charge of circulating false telegraphic dispatches, but were discharged by the Court on the ground that the charge was not supported. They were also held on the charge of "conspiracy to cheat and defraud," and held at $500 bail to answer.

Kidnapping is carried on at San Francisco. Young men and boys are enticed on board of vessels and carried off, leaving parents to believe them dead. Such a case lately occurred, but the boy was discovered and released before the vessel sailed. Such crimes ought to be severely punished.

SHOOTING IN UNION COUNTY.—In the interesting letter we publish to day from La Grande, we find an account of two shooting scrapes that took place lately in Eagle Creek and Kofster, the mining region of Union County, near the mouth of Powder River.

Native salt produced in Nevada is proved to be of excellent quality and capable of answering all purposes necessary for the reduction of ores at the mines, which will prove a valuable acquisition to the new State.

ATTEMPTED SUICIDE.—Henry Rupert, living two miles south of Albany, attempted to commit suicide on Tuesday last by cutting his throat with a razor. He made several severe wounds across his throat, but we understand none of them are considered mortal. Rupert, or "Old Henry," as he is called, is a Frenchman by birth and is over 70 years of age. He was a soldier under Napoleon and was with the "Great Captain" at the battle of Waterloo. Temporary insanity was the cause of his attempt on his life.—Albany Journal.

The T[illegible] [illegible] that [illegible] Dudley Mann [illegible] recognize the Southern Confederacy in the [illegible] but there was little or no hope of England uniting in this scheme.

Out of this [illegible] manufactured the story of the [illegible] of the two powers [illegible] the rebels.

War News.

NEW YORK, Jan 1[illegible].—[illegible] raid of Col Rob[illegible] from Fort Barrancas, Fla, to [illegible] Ala[illegible] successful. The rebels attempted to check his advance but were badly beaten and lost heavily.

Gen Granger on the 12th ult was within 28 miles of Mobile. His forces had also met with great success in the operations from Mobile Bay to Jackson county, Miss.

LOUISVILLE, Jan 12.—The Journal learns that a few days ago the rebel Major Taylor sent a flag of truce into Hardinsburg offering to assist the home guard to protect that town against guerrillas. His offer was accepted, and he is now operating in conjunction with the home guard against Davidson's gang.

NEW YORK, Jan 13.—The Herald's Shenandoah correspondent mentions a rumor that Sheridan is to have a new and very important command.

Private dispatches quote gold in New York on the 12th at 219@218.

Rebel Reports.

NEW YORK, Jan 1[illegible].—The Richmond papers are growing more bitterly in the denunciation of Jeff Davis and in demanding the appointment of Lee to the supreme command of the armies. The [illegible] of the 9th says Jeff's course is fast whirling the Confederacy to destruction.

Delegates from the Indians in alliance with the rebels visited Shreveport [illegible] on the 1[illegible] Dec for permission to ship cotton to provide for their necessaries, and to arm Indians in the rebel service.

NEW YORK, Jan 13.—The World's special says it is rumored that the peace commissioners have asked permission to cross our lines, but no reply has reached them. The Times' special says it is rumored that Blair has returned from Richmond.

The Richmond Whig reports an interview between the commissioners of exchange, but does not know the result.

Mexican News.

Dates from Mexico to the 28th show that the Republican troops were still giving the Imperialists plenty to do. Between four and five thousand of the Emperor's soldiers were defeated by the Republicans at [illegible]. The reported extent of the Republicans under Ortega is unfounded. Throughout all Southern Mexico the supporters of Juarez are very active. In one town two Imperial garrisons had revolted, put to death the prefect and joined the Republicans.

Peace Rumors.

NEW YORK, Jan 13.—The Arago, from Port Royal on the 9th, brings reports of importance, if true. It is that several counties in Georgia recently held elections and declared in favor of a return to the Union by overwhelming majorities. It is also reported that the people are arming to protect themselves [illegible] Gov Brown has disbanded the Georgia militia, who have returned home.

NEW YORK, Jan 11.—The Herald's Savannah correspondent of the 5th reports affairs in the city as quiet and unchanged. It confirms the reports of yesterday relative to the movements among the citizens of Georgia for the Union. The correspondent says they need confirmation. Nearly all the traders of Savannah had taken the oath of allegiance. Great suffering among the poor still continues and to a considerable degree among the wealthy. Gen Sherman's entire army is being recruited and equipped.

NEW YORK, Jan 11.—The Tribune's Washington special gives it as the opinion of an old hand at peace negotiations that a cessation of hostilities preliminary to formal negotiations will take place within a few days. It is understood that the President has declared that if Senator Foote is harmed he will bring five of the most distinguished rebel prisoners in our hands to grief. Our cavalry have been ordered to pursue Foote and his captors. (This is simply nonsense. Under the rules of war, the President could not retaliate for any injury inflicted on Foote. The rebel belongs to Jeff Davis and the rebels.)

Congressional.

WASHINGTON, Jan 13.—In the House, Mr Ashley moved and it was afterwards agreed, that after to day the farther consideration of the anti-slavery constitutional amendments be postponed for two weeks from Thursday next.

Mr Cole introduced a bill in amendment of the Pacific Railroad, notifying that the assignment made by the Pacific Railroad Company of California to the Western Railroad Company requiring said road to complete 20 miles yearly and the whole line from San Jose to Sacramento in four years.

Hubbard of Iowa, introduced a bill authorizing the Secretary of the Interior to institute geological survey of the Black Hills in Dacotah and appropriating twenty thousand dollars for that purpose.

Foot Runs from Richmond.

WASHINGTON, Jan 1[illegible].—The Government received information last evening that in an attempt to escape from rebeldom and enter our lines, Senator Foote was captured by two rebel cavalrymen at Occoquan, fifteen miles south west of Alexandria this afternoon. Fears are entertained that Jefferson Davis may deal harshly with Foote. It is understood our Government has taken steps to prevent any injury being done him.

NEW YORK, Jan 1[illegible].—The steamship Melville of New York for Hilton Head foundered at sea on the 7th. Thirty eight passengers were lost.

The steamer Costa Rica sailed to day. Among the passengers are Gen Sickles and staff, also Fred McCrellish of the Alta California.

The overland mail of 10th, 11th, 12th and 14th of December arrived this morning.

Foreign News.

HALIFAX, Jan 13.—The blockade runner Chameleon, late the Tallahassee, is under arrest at Bermuda. The blockade runner [illegible] is at Nassau undergoing repairs. There are now nine blockade runners at Bermuda. Of seventy one blockade runners visiting Bermuda during the past year forty three have been lost.

NEW YORK, Jan 1[illegible].—The Asia, from Liverpool on the 31st, has arrived. The Times, alluding to the present attitude of the North towards Canada, says: In the present state of Northern feeling there is too much reason to apprehend some act which may render war inevitable. The Americans neither appreciate the strength of England nor [illegible] the vigor with which the war would be [illegible] upon a reluctant Government. [illegible] The first result of the war would [illegible] immediate and irrevocable establishment [illegible] independence.

CHRISTIAN COMMISSION WORK IN CALIFORNIA AND OREGON.—The Rev Mr Mingins who arrived here on Monday last from Portland reports having organized sixteen Auxiliary Christian Commission Societies since his departure from this city —five in the Northern interior of this State and eleven in Oregon. A collection was taken up at nearly all the meetings. These sums amounted in the six meetings held in this State to about $700 and in the eleven meetings held in Oregon to about $3,000. The collections taken up at Portland, Dalles and Salem were over $600 each. The Ladies' Christian Commission Festival at Portland, which continued only two days realized $1,700. Mr Mingins has come back with great ideas of the mineral and agricultural importance of Oregon. He thinks the State a worthy compeer of California and that the two combined are destined to make the Pacific Coast an important part of the American Union.—S F Bulletin.

Mrs Frances L Clayton, now in M[illegible], enlisted in the army at St Paul, Minnesota, with her husband in 1861 and fought by his side till he was killed in the battle of Stone River. She was in eighteen battles; once [illegible] three times wounded, in hand, hip and knee, and after her husband's death made known her sex to her general and was discharged. After that she walked ninety three miles from Lexington to Louisville bare headed and bare footed, tracking her way in blood.

THE [illegible] — A fine [illegible] that [illegible] its existence [illegible] to house [illegible] architecture and elegance [illegible] celebrated in our city [illegible] Saturday [illegible] our pleasure [illegible] the exercises. A new [illegible] No. 3 has [illegible] the city [illegible] expense of [illegible] which [illegible] building for [illegible] in Oregon [illegible] better [illegible] rises high [illegible] square. [illegible] of brick [illegible] in mastic. The ground [illegible] room generally [illegible] way. The upper story [illegible] 16 feet in the [illegible] finish [illegible] used, which may eventually be constructed into a library and reading room [illegible] private [illegible] of the Company. A tower for the [illegible] is erected in the rear of the main building, reaching from the ground upward to a height of [illegible] 10 feet. A belfry [illegible] an alarm bell of [illegible] pounds weight [illegible]. At 2 o'clock the members of the Company and those from other Companies of the Department who could attend, together with the Mayor, Members of the Common Council and Members of the Board of the city, were assembled at the corner of Second and Washington streets and [illegible] the procession formed, headed by the Mechanics' Brass Band, and under the direction of Chief Engineer [illegible] and Assistants Wood and Johnson [illegible] was run out from the old quarters for the last time. Amid the [illegible] of fire bells and [illegible] the Band, the procession [illegible] through the principal streets with the Engine and Hose Carriage, then visited the various Houses of the Department through out the city, counter marching in front of each which were thrown open with the respective machines in them [illegible] and next halted at No. 3's new House, where a collation was spread, and the usual toasts and responses made. After this branch of the exercises was over the tables were removed, the large doors opening on Washington street thrown open and the Engine and [illegible] apparatus [illegible]. Our space [illegible] not admit of more than mention of the fact that at this juncture appropriate speeches were made by several persons. Mayor Falling was first called upon and briefly reviewed the past—it had been his pleasure to order the machine at the time of its purchase, when there was some doubt, too, as to the permanence of the Company, and he was now gratified to assist in "housing" it in such a fine building. His hope was that the Department might continue in its sphere of usefulness. The Chief Engineer, Mr Buchanan, Foreman of Jackson Co. of Dalles, and various members of the Council, besides members of the Department, and others, expressed their gratification at the proceedings and the day ended with much good feeling, which will be revived this evening at Turn Verein Hall at the hop to be given in further commemoration of the event by the Company. We cannot close this paragraph without a word in praise of the designer and builder of the fine improvement thus dedicated, Mr E M Burton. It is a work that does the city great credit and reflects the taste of its projector, and we hold an estimation in him for such ornaments that will outlive the "slab" [illegible] days of Portland, and we are pleased to know that we are not alone in this appreciation.

RECORDER'S COURT.—A crowded audience witnessed the operations in Police Court on Saturday evening, and the "acts" were quite equal to the comedy of "A New Way to Pay old Debts." Sir Giles Overreach would have been outdone, had the plays for that evening been dramatized and placed upon the boards of a Theatre in proper shape. We are of the opinion this will do, and the various mutations of client, defendants etc., be brought out in high comedy, on the principle of "As You Like It," under the sensational title of "Tit for Tat, or, Greenbacks at Par." The play would require many performers. Policemen would have to be stationed at every corner of the stage to serve all the warrants issued during the progress of affairs, on plaintiff, then defendant, as tit for tat. The scenery should have the representation of a steamship at the wharf about to leave for a foreign port, or San Francisco, and the plot would naturally reveal itself when the incorrigible Judge would refuse to "stay proceedings" until after the departure of the steamship, which must be supposed to leave the next day. The following cases were disposed of: City of Portland vs. Jacob Mayer, defendant fined $10 and costs, paid; City vs. Isaac Mayer, fined $15 and costs, paid; City vs. Jacob Mayer, fined $40 and costs, paid. The case of "Miss Placed Confidence" was withdrawn by the carpenter who had loved her so dear ly. The proceedings close, and the curtain drops as Charles Gibson goes down in his pocket after an equivalent for $10 and costs imposed as a penalty for being "Drunk and Disorderly."

PACIFIC AGROUND.—The steamship Pacific left Couch's wharf at nine o'clock yesterday morning and at two o'clock P. M. news was received that she was aground at some point below the city. She had a very heavy cargo, drawing the depth of about 14 feet. The steamer Julia was chartered and immediately dispatched to assist in lightering the vessel off. These things must continue to occur until we have our dredger in operation. The tax was authorized for this machine on Thursday night, and Councilman McCracken remarked that the tax may be a little heavy for us to bear the present season, but the dredger is a necessity; it must be bought, and it would be better to have the money in hand and pay for it when it arrives, than to loan the credit of the city for an amount at an excessive rate of interest. When the machinery arrives it will take three months before it can be placed in operation, but at all events we deem it a safe calculation to say that the first day of July will find our city properly equipped to put an effectual stop to any more vessels running aground.

*Since the above was put in type the steamer Julia has returned to her wharf. The Pacific had grounded outside of the channel, but was got off without much difficulty.

ARRIVAL OF THE SCHOONER ISABEL.—This vessel, which arrived yesterday from Carmen Island, is an Oregon craft, having been built at Coos Bay a few years since, by Capt Howlett. She is a trim built boat, fills the eye to perfection and has proven her sea worthiness by right handsomely riding all the gales experienced by the [illegible] in November, and one on the 28th of December some worse, at which time the barometer sank nearly sufficient to [illegible] falling to 28 10, being the lowest that Capt Pierson has ever experienced on the coast. During all this we think the only damage sustained by the Isabel was the starting of her figure head, and the bending or twisting of her mast hoop. Captain Pierson has decidedly had a pretty rough voyage, and we are pleased to congratulate him upon his safe arrival at last. Capt H [illegible] is [illegible] up another vessel at Coos Bay [illegible] we can only hope that he may be as successful in producing a fine craft as the Isabel.

THE EVENING TRIBUNE.—A very neatly printed daily paper with the above title, made its appearance in our city yesterday. The Tribune is published by Messrs. Vandeveer & Ward, the latter is running the quill editorial. Mr Vandeveer has been known as a member of the craft in this city for about three years. Mr Ward has lately arrived in our midst from Tennessee and we are pleased to know [illegible] that [illegible] has so characterized the [illegible] Cumberland districts of the once proud and happy State. The Tribune is a local paper [illegible] its "leader" [illegible] Union principles. We extend [illegible] the fraternal grasp.

TRESPASS ON PUBLIC LAND.—We [illegible] that in the case of the United States vs [illegible] growing out of an alleged trespass upon the public lands in Oregon, intimation has been received by telegraph from Washington that the President has granted a free pardon to Mr [illegible], thereby relieving him of the consequences of the judgment lately imposed by the District Court in this city for $18,750.

CIRCUIT COURT.—In addition to the causes noted on Saturday, in Circuit Court the following have [illegible] Sherry [illegible] E [illegible] was [illegible] and Wm [illegible], for title to real estate [illegible] [illegible] until the 2d inst.

MINING STOCK SALES.—[illegible] would be a little [illegible] sales made [illegible] to whom we can refer.

Alta [illegible]—15 shares at $10; 20 shares at $[illegible] 50; 25 shares at $15.
[illegible]—10 shares at $7 50; 15 shares at $1[illegible]; 5 shares at $20.
[illegible]—10 shares at $25; 10 shares at $20; 20 shares at $[illegible]; 10 shares at $10.
Glen Clara [illegible]—20 shares at $15.
Santiam—15 shares at $25.
Union—20 shares at $20.
[illegible]—[illegible] shares at $60; 6 shares at $60; 10 shares at $[illegible]; [illegible] shares at $13.

FINE BRICK.—The fire plug [illegible] of [illegible] and Washington street [illegible] beautiful on the morning of the late fire when at last properly opened by Mr [illegible] Johnson, second assistant engineer, and other demonstrates that the plug are a good institution. After the engine had [illegible] a hose attached to the plug carried a stream on to the ruins and answered the purpose of extinguishing the last remnant of fire that threatened any danger to the neighboring premises.

INSANE PERSONS.—Mr P T Tuthill, Deputy Sheriff of Wasco County, brought to the Insane Asylum on Saturday a man by the name of A C Patterson, who formerly resided in this city and worked at the business of plastering. He is [illegible] of the county. Mr John S. Love, a County Commissioner from Jacksonville, also arrived on Saturday with an insane man named Augustus Rombohl, sent by Jackson county.

SOLDIERS FOR FORT STEILACOOM.—The steamer [illegible], Capt Turnbull, arrived from Fort Vancouver yesterday on a special trip, with Company H of the newly enlisted Infantry, commanded by Capt [illegible], which embarked [illegible] on the steamer [illegible] en route to Fort Steilacoom, Washington Territory.

THE BELL RINGERS.—The Swiss Bell Ringers will appear at Willamette Theatre this evening and will afford much novel and instructive amusement. They have been very successful in San Francisco and the interior of California since their arrival on the Coast in July last, and from our own observation we can commend them.

THEATRICAL.—Mr Potter's Theatrical troupe performed for the last of the season at Willamette Theatre in this city, on Saturday evening. They go to the Dalles to-day and will appear at the theatre there to-morrow evening.

TREASURE BY THE STEAMSHIP.—The steamship Pacific, which sailed for San Francisco yesterday morning, carried $[illegible],000 in treasure. Wells, Fargo & Co. shipped $60,000. There is but little bullion received from the mining region just now.

NOTARY PUBLIC.—S A Clark, Esq., has been appointed Notary Public, and having qualified is prepared to attend to Notarial duties at the OREGONIAN office.

ONE WORD TO THE LADIES.—We had supposed that the ultima thule in the art of sewing had been reached some months ago, when we saw, for the first time, a Grover & Baker machine in full action, but now, a lady friend, well posted in all matters pertaining thereto, informs us that an important part of the performance escaped our notice, and in proof thereof exhibits to our astonished gaze her little boy's frock embroidered with tasteful and fanciful designs, which she informs us was all done stitching, embroidery and all on the same Machine. This is certainly remarkable, but nevertheless true, and if all the purchasers of these celebrated machines are as enthusiastic as is our friend, the proprietors must be having one continual "hymn of praise" ascending in their behalf.

Strengthen the System.

The best means of imparting vigor to the broken down frame and shattered constitution which has yet been [illegible] is proffered to the feeble of both sexes and all ages in

Dr. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters.

Debility from whatever cause arising may be cured, strength, in whatever manner it may have been wasted [illegible] restored by the use of this powerful and healthy [illegible]. For indigestion and all its painful effects, bodily and mental, they are a positive specific.

A Word to the Aged!

In the decline of life the loss of vital force consequent upon physical decay can only be safely supplied by some vivifying preparation which recruits the strength and [illegible] without entailing the exhaustion which is always the [illegible] effect of ordinary stimulants. We tender to the aged

Dr. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters.

As an invigorant and restorative, immediate in its beneficial action and permanent in its effects. It tones the stomach, improves the appetite, and acts like a charm upon the spirits.

For Females:

Thousands of ladies resort to it as a remedy for hysteria, fluttering of the heart, nervous headache, vertigo, general debility, and all peculiar disturbances and derangements to which, as a sex, they are subject. It cheers and enlivens the depressed mental powers, as well as strengthens the body, and its use is never followed by any reaction.

A Greenback Case!

HAVING BEEN COMPELLED TO ACCEPT OF Legal Tender Notes at par since the 17th day of December 1862, for the rent of my handsome Brick Store, corner of Morrison and Front streets, I feel compelled to announce for the benefit of the public at large, that

Jacob Mayer

Leased the building of me on the 17th day of February, 1862, for a term of years, at which time there was no such currency in vogue, and it was understood the terms were CASH. Since the date above stated I have received the depreciated currency regularly, under protest for the rent of the

CITY OF PARIS STORE,

Making less than two fifths of the real amount said Mayer [illegible] had secured the building at very advantageous rates, and even were he now to comply with his [illegible] pay in COIN, would be getting the best bargain in the city. I make this statement to show the public what kind of a man he must be to take such undue advantage of the times to convert a few dollars to himself by LEGAL SWINDLING. The public can readily see what interest I have in such tenants. G. W. VAUGHN.

The Piratical Expedition in San Francisco

The following from the Bulletin of De[illegible] are the particulars of the discovery of the late piratical expedition set on foot in San Francisco and referred to recently

For some time past the Government authorities at this place have had reason to believe that a piratical expedition to prey upon the commerce of the Pacific was in contemplation, and the only measures were taken for the discovery and frustration of the suspected plot. Michael Hayes, of Hayes' Park, was suspected to be a leading spirit in the enterprise, and a watch was set on his movements, which resulted in his arrest on Saturday, together with the accumulation of overwhelming proofs of his guilt. W. R. Robertson formerly bookkeeper for F W Parl in [illegible], and more lately a clerk in the Custom House, and one Finley, (both sound Union men) were the principal agents in bringing the guilty party or parties to justice. It seems from all [illegible] that Robertson has been acting as a Government spy, at the same time that he was believed by certain enemies of the Government to be sound on the Secesh question, wherefore he was admitted by them to all their secret councils, and to a knowledge of their piratical designs. They supposed they had a staunch friend in him and he to keep up appearances and carry out the object in view, pretended to give them contraband information of the minor workings of the Custom House and of Government affairs, until he had their full confidence. Finley had played a like game with them, and it was to him that Hayes first made the propositions for fitting out the expedition. Finley objected on acount of the risk incurred, when Hayes produced letter of marque from Jeff Davis, which Finley examined and found correct, when he consented to join. Robertson was then informed of the plan and asked to join. But he appeared reluctant, and after having discussed the subject several times, a meeting was arranged at Hayes' Park on Saturday, about noon. Robertson, in the meantime had conferred with the military authorities, and Major Van Vost and Lieutenant Judkins were close at hand in a hack, while Lieutenant Waller, with a detachment of nine of the Provost Guard, were carelessly "hanging about," and attracted no attention. It was agreed between them that upon Robertson raising his right hand and grasping the lappel of his coat at the collar, that the Provost Guard should rush in and take the three parties prisoners, Robertson and Finley to be arrested with Hayes to disarm the latter's suspicion. A game of cards was proposed, during which Hayes proposed that Robertson should purchase the schooner Colon, of N Lord & Co, give his notes and part cash for the vessel, Robertson to be secured in his purchase by certificate of deposit for $1,700, which Hayes had, and which was found on his person when arrested. The Colon was to be armed with one gun, and they were to equip her and smuggle out, with the assistance of Robertson, who was to manage the affair at the Custom House, and having got outside, were to seize a larger vessel, transfer their armament to her, and eventually take one of the steamships, with which they could sweep the Pacific of its commerce and enrich themselves in fabulous amounts. The latter pretended to decline alleging that if they were caught their necks would pay the forfeit for their indiscretion. He did not wish to enter into the thing until he was sure of his premises. Hayes replied that he had the necessary letters of marque from Jeff Davis which, if they were caught, would insure them treatment as prisoners of war. "Let me see them," said Robertson. Hayes replied that they would be out on the next train, in about twenty minutes. "All right," replied Robertson, "I will wait;" and he leaned up against the bar, with his elbow on the counter, but unfortunately, thoughtlessly took hold of the front of his coat, though at a point lower down than the place intended for the signal. This movement, however, was mistaken for the signal agreed upon, and the Provost Guard rushed in and seized them. Hayes was taken into town in the carriage and driven to the Provost Guard headquarters, where an examination was held before General McDowell and the three sent over to Alcatraz Island. It was exceedingly unfortunate that the signal was mistaken, or otherwise the original document might have been taken with the prisoner, which would have furnished additional proof. Hayes is an old resident of this city, has always been a man of strong Southern sympathies and Secesh proclivities, and during the Presidential campaign was the President of the Hayes' Park Broom Rangers and always acted as Marshal in their processions. It is thought there is sufficient proof to convict him of the crime of conspiracy to fit out a piratical expedition within the waters of the United States, and if he is convicted in the hands of the military authorities, his punishment will be death.

SHOCKING DETAILS OF REBEL BARBARITY.—Humanity shudders at such a record as that below. Still the details of the treatment which resulted in such mortality, bring home the fearful results far more closely. A correspondent of the Herald describing the appearance of the released men when they came on board our transports thus describes them

I never in my life conceived of such scenes of misery as some of our poor fellows presented. They suffered from scurvy mostly, but I was told that others, worse off than those we received, were left behind because of the impossibility of transporting them in safety. Yet they were joyous beyond description as they came on shore beneath the folds of the old flag. On the passage down the Savannah river to Venus Point—the designation of the spot where the exchange is in progress—they were permitted to make no demonstrations of joy. Cheering, shouting and singing were prohibited by the rebel guards who threatened to fire into the crowd if the stringent rule were violated. But when the vessels were lashed together the air was filled with jubilant shouts, and poor, emaciated sufferers, resting in the strong arms of our nurses, mingled their feeble notes of gladness with the lusty tones of the [illegible] and hearty as they were borne across the gang planks to the decks of the Union craft.

Our men were ragged beyond description. Some of them had nothing on them but pantaloons, and I noticed one pair of inexpressibles the legs of which reached only part way to the ankle of the wearer. Others had their limbs bound up with strips of blankets, in place of any other covering. Still others, whose garments had by great care been kept together, were covered with vermin, which rattled from them like sand. The sick who were unable to help themselves at all were certainly the most pitiable objects. They were covered with gangrenous [illegible] sores, harbors for worms and [illegible] and wriggle in. They were doubled up as if in a permanent cramp. Some of them had their lips eaten away by their loathsome disease, and were unable to even pronounce their name. They were washed and shaved, and furnished with clean clothes, and then having been placed upon clean cots, were fed with biscuits, coffee and a little milk punch.

One of them so distorted by scurvy that his knees and his chin touched each other [illegible] with great good humor as he was brought [illegible] am your man for half a mattress [illegible] another like me and save a little room [illegible] when his coffee was brought to him and he was lifted so that the fragrant cup might [illegible] his lips broke out: [illegible] put me in mind of how I [illegible] still another, recognizing an old friend [illegible] cried out [illegible] ye saw the old flag?' [illegible] hollered,' was the response [illegible] swering the same question, [illegible] quiet voice, 'I thought I was in Paradise, and couldn't say a word.'

The terms of imprisonment which the [illegible] had suffered varied from four [illegible] In all that time they had [illegible] smelt the odor of coffee. [illegible] fer match had almost escaped their memory [illegible] as the doctor struck one to light a cigar he was beset by fifty voices begging one [illegible] sake. The tempers of many of our men, as well

[illegible] were worn out, and after [illegible] men were with [illegible] always [illegible] these circumstances [illegible] that Savannah [illegible] breaking out [illegible] the change [illegible]

[illegible] LOCAL ITEM.—The following from the Cincinnati Herald is one of the richest and most comprehensive local items we have perused for many a day

As a gentleman was passing along Fifth street, he passed a place where some boys were playing marbles. One of them in shooting his marble cleverly put it under the gentleman's foot. The gentleman slipped and stumbled against a lady, also passing, precipitating her along with himself upon a large hog, who was examining the gutter geologically for debris. The hog, frightened out of his propriety, bolted off and ran between the legs of another gentleman, who in falling drew the string of a kite from the hands of a boy. The kite of course fell, and falling, frightened a span of horses attached to a wagon near by. The horses ran down the alley. A man was building a fire in a carpenter shop, by which they passed; he started up to see what was the matter, and in doing so dropped his lighted match among the shavings. A fire was the consequence. The engines assembled, and in the hurry consequent upon the alarm, a man fell in the track of one of them and had his arm broken, which ended this budget of accidents for the day.

Query—Is the boy who shot the marble responsible for all the consequent damages?

Our little friend Bobby religiously believes that babies come from heaven, by a sort of celestial express. The other day he was called in to see a newly born babe, which lay very still among the flannels. "Poor little thing!" said Bobby, "tired coming so far, isn't he?"

A counsel being asked by a judge "for whom he was concerned," replied "I am CONCERNED for the plaintiff, my lord, but I am employed by the defendant."
